

DOES COORDINATED CARE MAKE A DIFFERENCE?

A closer look for seniors with Medicare

Reduces Hospital Admissions

Lowers readmission rates by 3%¹

Lowers ER visits by 14%¹

Lowers mortality rates among seniors by 40%²

Improves Medication Adherence

Patients follow medical advice

5%

more often.³

Cost Savings

Saves patients up to 11% on their medical costs.⁴

Increased Preventative Care

Better Management of Chronic Conditions

Increased Access to Health Care

1: <https://www.bcbs.com/smarter-better-healthcare/article/value-based-care-understanding-price-vs-value-healthcare>

2: <https://www.chenmed.com/blog/5-things-you-should-know-about-full-risk-value-based-care>

3: <https://patientengagementhit.com/news/value-based-care-drives-preventive-care-care-management>

4: <https://www.nejm.org/doi/full/10.1056/NEJMsa1813621>